

Privacy Statement

We collect nonpublic information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our members and former members to anyone, except as permitted by law.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees, officials, agents, and attorneys who need to know that information to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
